Walk along the streets of Pompeii, hidden for 2000 years.

The image shows two ancient, mummified bodies lying on a dark, textured surface. The bodies are light brown and appear to be made of a material like mud or plaster, with some internal structures visible. One body is lying on its back, and the other is lying on its side. The surface they are on has a grid-like pattern and some small, light-colored squares scattered across it.

How did these two die?

Outstanding preservation.

Emperors.

Shopping and site-seeing in Capri.

A close-up view of a display case filled with various ice cream flavors. The trays are arranged in rows, showing a variety of colors and textures. In the foreground, there is a tray with green ice cream topped with dark chocolate shavings, a tray with pink and white ice cream, and a tray with red ice cream. In the background, there are trays with yellow, white, and red ice cream, some with toppings like chocolate chips and nuts. The text "Taste the world's yummiest ice-cream!" is overlaid on the top right of the image.
